What

School Photographers of America (SPOA) is hosting contests through the year to find and celebrate young photographers who have learned how to share stories through their camera lens.

Who

These contests are for students in middle school and high school, perhaps on their yearbook or newspaper staff, who are using photography to make an impact on their school or wider community.

How

Follow the QR code above or go to

<https://www.schoolphotographersofamerica.com/student-contests>

and submit up to two images per category through the form there.

Images must be in either jpg or png format and be named like:

LastName_FirstName_Category_ImageNumberOrTitle.

The Prizes

SPOA's photography partner, Sony, is providing the winners with Sony camera kits up to a value of $2,000 apiece. There will be one winner per category.
